The Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE) have brought together an inter-dept govt working group to look at additional regulation for the Short Term Rental Accommodation Sector. MBIE requested the Accommodation Forum NZ to submit a proposed framework for regulation. The Accommodation Forum, comprises New Zealand's industry accommodation associations across hotels, motels, apartments, bed and breakfasts, lodges, short term rentals, OTAs, holiday parks and backpackers. The submission was made to MBIE on 2 July 2020 and advocated for a central government approach to STRA that included requests for a compulsory registration, a regulatory environment that is fair to all participants, data sharing and a mandatory code of conduct.
