

APPENDIX SIX – SUGGESTED SITES FOR NON-SELF-CONTAINED FREEDOM CAMPING:

The below sites were suggested for non-self-contained freedom camping, these sites all have public toilet facilities:

- Tongaporutu (within 100m of the public toilet)
- Wai-iti Beach
- Urenui Domain
- Onaero Domain
- Battiscombe Terrace
- Bell Block Beach
- Waiwhakaiho River Mouth
- Lake Rotomanu
- East End Beach
- Kawaroa
- Ngamotu Beach
- Port Taranaki – near boat ramps
- Back Beach / Centennial Drive area
- Corbett park
- Weld Road
- Okato Domain
- Old Okato School (by skatepark)
- Anywhere with public toilets available
- Non-self-contained campers should stay in areas with adequate facilities.
- In agreeable and safe areas

Below sites do not have public toilets,:

- Rifle Range Road
- End of Clemow Road
- Bolsom Reserve
- The Mill lower carparks
- Meeting of the Waters
- Parking sites in carparks
- Fort St. George
- One submitter believed that non-self-contained freedom campers should be permitted to stay anywhere on council controlled or managed land
- Other beaches – the appropriateness of a beach for non-self-contained freedom camping is dependent on the infrastructure, for example public toilets.
- A site in the middle of the Pukekura Racecourse

Sites currently locked at night under existing reserve management plans.

- Merrilands Domain
- Lake Mangamahoe

Other suggestions.

- Colson Road landfill once it is closed
- A farm out from New Plymouth by a river, but not close to a beach
- Along beach areas and large parking areas (especially during the summer holiday times)
- An area for NSC campers should be located near commercial amenities (food, fuel). A partnership could be agreed to with private commercial interests.
- Somewhere with minimal impact on the locals, rates and the environment.
- Huatoki – but not too close to NZMCA site

Sites under Department of Conservation control, therefore the Council is not able to stipulate rules

- North Egmont Visitor Centre

Areas suggested outside of the New Plymouth District:

- Egmont Light House Coastal area
- Puniho Road
- York Road Loop Track
